Merici Crossings:
Where people meet and lives intersect

Merici Crossings stands as a beacon to the ideal that with bold faith, good planning and loyal friends, all things are possible.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Merici Crossings!

What a remarkable journey it has been, from mere seeds of a vision to the dream come true! There were surprises and blessings at every turn. Delighting in wonderful stories of your Ursuline connections and memories, welcoming suggestions and wise counsel offered in a spirit of friendship and support. Your belief in us fueled our confidence in boldly undertaking this great work. And here we stand today, so humbled and so very grateful for what we have accomplished together!

Owing to your support anchored in bold faith we are blessed with a beautiful and functional home providing for our sisters today and also for those who will come after. Your generosity has also given us new hope for the future and re-animated our hearts and spirits for service and Mission. Merici Crossings stands as a beacon to the ideal that with bold faith, good planning and loyal friends, all things are possible.

These pages are filled with images of the building's beautiful interior. Even more, they hold the names of those whose belief and generosity have made Merici Crossings a reality. On behalf of the Ursuline Sisters, I offer you our heartfelt thanks. We stand once again in the truth of Saint Angela's counsel that God will provide for our needs. We need only look around us … at our beautiful new residence and congregational center and at all of our friends who helped fashion and raise it. God has indeed provided for us wonderfully!

We are thrilled to welcome you today to the home that your faith, your bold faith, has built! May Merici Crossings be a place of grace and blessing for all!

Gratefully, in Saint Angela,

Sr. Susan Durkin

Environmentally sustainable, adaptable to the changing demographics of the Ursuline Sisters, and efficient operating costs were important guidelines in the design and construction of Merici Crossings. While not LEED certified, many environmentally responsible elements were integrated into the new structure, including LED lighting, energy efficient windows and a modified geothermal system for heating and cooling. Moving to Merici Crossings shrinks our footprint and reduces wasted resources poured into a deteriorating building but increases the quality of community life and the safety of our sisters.

1ST FLOOR AMENITIES

▼ Entryway

Upon entering Merici Crossings, you cannot help but to be drawn to the stained glass windows suspended from the ceiling. These windows, brought from our former chapel and repurposed, act as prisms letting in the sunlight to create this beautiful effect to welcome all who enter.

▶ Chapel

Both from the dramatic view approaching Merici Crossings and upon entering our new home, we are drawn to this chapel. Both from the outside and from within, our eyes are drawn upward toward God. It is here that we gather for personal prayer and community liturgies.

▲ Great Room

This community living room ties seamlessly to the Chapel and the Community Dining Room that all work together to create the living heart of our Ursuline life. This room is where sisters can engage one another and share the happenings of their lives. The Holy Spirit stained glass window (pictured) was given to the sisters in honor of the four church women, including our own Sister Dorothy Kazel, who were murdered in El Salvador.

▶ Community Dining Room

So much of our life together happens around shared meals. Like the Chapel, the Dining Room windows fill the room with natural light creating a warm and inviting space to enjoy a meal and linger with one another in conversation.

◀ Outdoor Patio

The Patio for Prayer and Contemplation is nestled between the chapel and dining room. Once the furniture arrives, the sisters will be able to watch the sunrise in the morning while they pray or grab a cup of coffee and enjoy the beauty of creation.

▶ Kitchen and Grab & Go

Our chef, Art, leads a talented kitchen staff that is dedicated to health and wellness. He was fully engaged in the design of the kitchen, using what he could from the old kitchen. Given our different schedules, we even designed a "Grab & Go" area where sisters can take something with them or grab on the way in if they are not home for lunch or dinner.

▼ Atrium

This two-story atrium is a stunning space that brings light into the residence and draws us to the outdoor patio with views to the woods beyond.

◀ Ministry Rooms & Offices

Merici Crossings is more than a residence. It is where sisters continue to minister as they are able, some travel to ministry sites and others serve from here. We designed three ministry spaces where sisters can meet others for tutoring or spiritual direction as well as other meetings. Other offices include Transportation, Health and Wellness, Finance, Operations, and Life Enrichment.

▲ Suites

Spread across three floors are suites that accommodate 70 sisters. There are some 1- and 3-bedroom suites, but most are 2-bedrooms. Sisters share a living room and a small kitchenette since meals are served in the Community Dining Room. In the future, these can be retrofitted into full kitchens. Each suite provides sisters with private bedrooms and bathrooms with accessible showers, and ensuite washer and dryer. Additional storage is provided to each suite on all three floors.

2ND FLOOR AMENITIES

▶ On the second floor is a Wellness Center that can be used for personal exercise and physical therapy, or for group classes like yoga and Pilates led by trained instructors. Sisters can also find some essential personal care items at the Merici Mart and make a hair appointment with a stylist at the Beauty Parlor.

3RD FLOOR AMENITIES

◀ On the third floor is a shared Community Room where sisters can entertain family and friends or do some baking. It has a full kitchen with stove and oven, and a stocked pantry.

GARAGE

▶ Cognizant of the challenges Cleveland weather poses, a heated underground garage was included in the design. With parking for 40 cars used for ministry and other transportation needs, sisters who drive can safely get to the cars from all three floors of the new residence, reassured that access to the residence is restricted by use of a FOB.

In 2010, the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage featured the exhibition Women & Spirit: Catholic Sisters of America. As a sponsor, the Ursuline Sisters of Cleveland were involved in numerous ways throughout the run of the show. The sisters' contribution of time, energy, and enthusiasm helped to make this one of the most successful exhibitions at the museum.

When we learned of plans for the new Merici Crossings, we immediately knew that we wanted to support this project in order to give back to the sisters in a meaningful and lasting way. We wish them joy for years to come in their new home!

I first encountered the Ursuline Sisters through my granddaughters. Julia attended Beaumont School and Marie worked with the sisters at the motherhouse through a program at her school. The sisters gave them both a strong sense of faith, a desire to be good citizens and prepared them to meet the challenges of today's world. In gratitude, I was delighted to make a gift to the Bold Faith | Building a Future campaign.

Our family has had a long relationship with the Ursulines beginning with their stewardship of St. Patrick Parish School and then Urban Community School. The project was of interest because the new residence would provide a wonderful living space for the sisters. The future flexibility of having lay people move in with them once their numbers dwindle is a savvy business model. Finally, the plan to redevelop the existing motherhouse is both innovative and positive for the Ursulines and the neighborhood.

Our Ursuline connection began when Joan entered first grade at St. Therese School and continued at Beaumont School. Our 25 years of close connection with Urban Community School, an Ursuline gift to inner city, has only increased our respect and affection for the Ursuline Sisters of Cleveland. It is a privilege to be able to give back.

Our relationship with the Ursulines began in 1959 at Christ the King School and continues until today as they move to their new home. The Spirit of the Ursuline Family transcends time. They have positively impacted so many lives, including ours. Thank you for ALL you do. May God bless you and congratulations!

BOLD FAITH, FUTURE OF HOPE

God of all thresholds,
we stand poised on the brink of tomorrow filled with gratitude for all those who have blessed us with this new space and time at Merici Crossings.

Open our hearts to the horizons ahead of us.
May sisters, friends, family and generous supporters,
all wholeheartedly respond to the call of the Spirit in our lives.

Fill each of us with new energy,
a zeal to anoint the lives we touch,
inspired by the grace and beauty
surrounding us in these halls.

May the fire of justice burn within us, a holy restlessness
to be open to wherever you are calling us.

We walk hand in hand with You, O God,
knowing that You are present with us as we move forward with bold faith into new endeavors, a future full of hope.
Amen.
