

We Walk By Faith

2020-2021 Annual Report

URSULINE SISTERS OF CLEVELAND

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

I think the real message is that even if we are not sure of the path ahead, we need to keep moving forward.

Dear Friends,

The theme for our 2020-2021 Annual Report is We walk by Faith. I am sure many of us recognize this quote and could probably add the second part and not by sight. But what does it mean to walk by faith? Faith is defined as, "Belief in, loyalty to, and complete trust in God, and as a firm belief in something for which there is no proof." That sounds more complicated than simply walking by faith. I think the real message is that even if we are not sure of the path ahead, we need to keep moving forward. Is my path today one of faith or one of sight? Let us take seriously the call to walk by faith.

In this Annual Report we review all that has happened over this past year. We will recognize the generosity of all of you—our beloved benefactors, friends, family members and donors. Without each of you our ministries of education, health care, parish work, prayer and pastoral care for the sick could not have happened. We are so grateful for this partnership with each of you. Please know you are daily in our thoughts and prayers.

We will introduce you to a number of people who we feel truly do walk by faith. The first is Lola Tarasco, our Director of Health and Wellness. She oversees the healthcare of our sisters in the many different aspects of our lives. She brings her gifts of insight and understanding to this important ministry.

Also featured is Sister Juliana Beck, who began a new ministry last year with the Catholic Worker Community in Akron. Their core ministry is hospitality to women and children with a heavy emphasis on immigrants, people who come to this country filled with hope and faith.

We are blessed by the help and support of our numerous volunteers. In this issue four of them, Toni Arnold, Louise Barman, Kathy Cistone and Karen Murray, will share stories of how they have been walking by faith throughout the pandemic.

Finally, we celebrate the 150th anniversary of our own Ursuline College! This is a year filled with large and small celebrations to commemorate this special event. We remember the faithful service of many of our sisters and lay colleagues who served at the college and those who carry on the mission in their own lives every day.

Gratefully,

The background of the entire page is a photograph of water ripples over smooth, light-colored rocks. The rocks are visible beneath the water, adding texture to the scene.

We Walk By Faith

by Sister Elaine M. Berkopec

Driving a car at night can be stressful. The darker the road, the more stressful the drive. Headlights certainly help, but only by illuminating the straight distance ahead. Sometimes the next turn in the road can present an unexpected challenge or obstacle.

At times life can put us on a dark road. This last year of the COVID-19 pandemic, climate change, and political and social turmoil has been one of darkness on our journey. We might ask ourselves: What has changed? Where are we going? What lies ahead and how can we even plan for the future let alone see where we are headed? Everything is different. What do we do now?

No one can see the road into the future. However, people with faith have a lamp that lights the way. We walk by faith and not by sight. We walk knowing that we are not alone and that the Spirit of God can direct our steps and enlighten our imaginations.

There are many in our lives who have walked with us by faith this year in order to further the mission of the Ursuline Sisters, either by offering time and talent in creative ways or by overcoming the obstacles that the pandemic erected. Many have also shared their treasure to make sure that Ursuline life and ministry continued unhampered through a year of sheltering, lockdowns, and quarantines.

We Ursuline Sisters are blessed by you, people of faith who walk with us. We are grateful to you who are with us on this journey of faith and hope: all the persons and organizations listed in this publication, those who remain anonymous, those who journey with us in prayer and love. Thank you to all of you and each one of you. You are God's beautiful gift to us.

*We walk by faith
and not by sight.
We walk knowing that we are not alone and that the Spirit of God can direct our steps
and enlighten our imagination.*

Sister Juliana finds a way

by Sister Dorothy Bondi

Sister Juliana Beck learns the joy of bubble blowing.

“We walk by faith...” are words that can certainly be used to describe the life journey of Sister Juliana Beck.

Juliana was born in Baltimore, Maryland. Because her father was in the army for two years and was Director of Engineering, he was transferred often and his family had to move several times. Throughout these early years, Juliana’s faith was nurtured as she attended Catholic elementary schools in Cincinnati, Ashtabula, Painesville, Erie, PA, and Euclid.

Juliana attended a public high school and found many ways to live and deepen her faith by sharing it with others. She liked to attend Christian coffeehouse sessions with her friends. Juliana taught preschool religion classes and was released from her own classes three days a week to work as an aide in a special education classroom.

These positive early experiences led her in college to pursue a career in education. She attended one year at University of Wisconsin, one year at Notre Dame College of Ohio in Cleveland, and then continued at the Franciscan University of Steubenville where she received a Master’s Degree in Education Administration. After graduation, she served as a teacher in elementary schools and as a principal for five years in Toronto, Ohio.

Throughout these years, Juliana recalled that she had a deep desire to serve God by serving others. She pursued this service as a candy striper in a hospital. In 1974 she entered the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity in Carrollton,

Sister has learned that hospitality in that setting is about being present to “people who come our way” and “about looking at things from their perspective (stepping into their shoes).”

and for 22 years continued to work with children who had special needs.

When her religious community was no longer able to sustain itself and its ministry, Juliana's aunt, Ursuline Sister M. Kilian, along with a friend, Sister Anita Whitely, encouraged her to pursue her vocation as an Ursuline Sister of Cleveland. Certainly, as a woman of faith, she realized how God was present in all of this. She still truly believes that "each person with whom we come in contact is an encounter with God."

Sister Juliana continues to teach children in reading intervention daily for four hours in the morning at Lippmann School in Akron. In the afternoon she works as a coordinator of services at Catholic Worker House in Akron. From her mentor, Sister Catherine Walsh, CSA, Sister has learned that hospitality in that setting is about being present to "people who come our way" and "about looking at things from their perspective (stepping into their shoes)."

Sister Juliana also lives in Akron with a Guatemalan family made up of a mother and her four children. She relates a story that demonstrates their culture: when given a gift, such as coloring books and crayons, the children immediately put them all out to share rather than choose something for themselves.

In her Akron ministry, Sister Juliana has an opportunity to meet people from many different backgrounds, immigrant families, Latinx migrant workers, and families in need. She works to do what is necessary to help them now and to empower them for the future; for example, she has helped many Latinx families learn how to use the translation phone line for Akron Children's Hospital.

The words of St. Angela Merici inspire her to serve others, and in doing so, she has learned that being present to others does make her more "open-hearted."

Sister Juliana is very busy with her ministries and has actually learned how to do more than one thing at a time. But she also realizes the importance of nurturing her own prayer life and spends her free time in nature where she finds peace and God's presence, and where she can truly deepen that relationship.

Her mantra, often recited throughout the busyness of her days is: "Through You, With You, and In You."

Sister Juliana Beck truly is an excellent example of what it means to "Walk by Faith!"

Lola Tarasco reveals the ways of faith in service

by Sister Janet Moore

Sr. Kathleen Foster, Lola, Sr. Anne Cecile

Who is this woman known to all Ursulines simply as Lola? When asked the question, “So who is Lola?” she supplied the following information: “Lola Tarasco, married for 44 years, mother of three and grandmother of three, is a Registered Nurse, a Certified Dementia Practitioner, certified in Gerontology, also certified in Brain Health, and in End of Life.”

In 2004 Lola was employed as Director of Nursing for the portion of the Ursuline motherhouse dedicated to health care known as the St. Angela Center. When it became necessary to close the Center, the congregation widened the reach of her responsibilities to include all the sisters and offered her the position of Director of Health and Wellness for the Ursuline Sisters of Cleveland, the position that she holds to this day.

As Director of Health and Wellness for the whole congregation, Lola dealt for the first time with those sisters who had not known her as well as those who lived in the motherhouse. Their concerns often differed, but essentially all sisters hold in common the fact that each day they are one day older than they had been the day before. Aging is inevitable.

In her position as Director of Health and Wellness Lola sees education as key to addressing the subject of aging. Not only has Lola attempted to meet these needs individually but she has prepared instructional presentations on relevant topics for the whole community. This past year she has kept the entire congregation up to date on matters of the COVID-19 pandemic and the changing regulations stemming from it. She has provided directions for all the sisters in terms of precautionary measures and altered restrictions as needed. She made sure that every sister was scheduled for an appointment to be vaccinated as soon as the vaccines became available. Her ongoing concern has kept the community well, for which we are grateful.

Personal relationships are critically important to Lola – those with the individual sister, of course, but also those with doctors, nurses, and the medical community. It is easy for Lola to access offices; she has the ability to get past hours on a phone waiting to speak to a doctor or to schedule an appointment “because I have spent so much time with sisters at a variety of hospitals that I am known around the city; we have a history; they respect my professional opinion.”

Lola values the personal relationship that she has with each sister. She respects the fact that each sister comes from her own distinctive background and has her own unique personality, but a single truth pertains to all: aging well takes work, and the process takes time. Unfortunately, some sisters postpone the work because they fear it. Education helps to dispel fear. Lola sees some sisters who for years have been so totally dedicated to their ministries that they have not taken time for health issues, or they are simply naïve about their health. A sister may need assistance in understanding the physical and psychological changes she is experiencing. She may be very private about her health or may not want to face noticeable changes in her mental or physical abilities. Lola helps the sister by asking her pertinent questions. On the other hand, not every change is a cause for concern. Some conditions that a sister might be experiencing are simply characteristic of all people her age. Slowing down is not necessarily an indication of declining health and feeling the need to take a rest in the afternoons is nothing to be concerned about. Another sister might want to consult Lola very frequently, not realizing that she is becoming overly dependent on her. Lola gently tries to help the sister overcome her insecurity and to take responsibility for her own health. A sister who has spent a lifetime in dedicated and fruitful service may have gradually come to define herself by her successful ministry; for her, retirement creates a depressing void, and she feels like a failure. Some sisters

Lola Tarasco and Sr Mary McNulty

“The greatest gift the sisters give me is their trust in me; they have faith in me and often rely on me for decisions. I do not take their faith in me lightly. When decisions must be made, I take it slowly and talk things through.”

are able to come appropriately to the decision that they are no longer safe drivers; others have difficulty reaching that conclusion or accepting the fact that they have to surrender their driver's license. Chronological age is not an automatic gate. The early signs of cognitive loss, for instance, are sometimes difficult to detect. Dementia can appear in younger people, and it is not easy for some to recognize the fact that forgetfulness is one thing, but when you don't know that you don't know, that is a flag that must be addressed.

When asked, do you walk by faith? Lola responded without any hesitation in the affirmative. “Yes, especially when I must have a hard conversation with someone, I'll stop at the door for a moment and say a prayer to the Holy Spirit. I try to get into the person's shoes for a moment so I can deal with the person better; transitions in life are not easy.” When a sister has reached a point in the aging process where evidence indicates that she would be safer and better served in a facility that can give her additional support, the sister faces a major decision. Lola attempts to ease the decision about moving to a nursing home or assisted living, a decision that would be difficult for anyone to make. Lola especially relies upon the Spirit when she has to explain to a sister the implications of a very serious diagnosis the sister has just been given. At these times she is often amazed and totally edified by a sister's courageous openness to God's will.

"The greatest gift the sisters give me is their trust in me; they have faith in me and often rely on me for decisions. I do not take their faith in me lightly. When decisions must be made, I take it slowly and talk things through. So far my instincts and critical thinking – plus the fact that I have spent considerable time with them and know their issues – help me so I can help them when they have to make their own decisions about things.

"The environment in this community and being a health advisor and professional is so special ... working in this community is a perk. I consider working with the sisters a vocation."

Indeed, "We walk by faith," the opening phrase of a 19th century hymn based on 2 Corinthians 5:7

We...Lola Tarasco / Ursulines / you, our friends

Walk...embrace our daily journeys through life

By Faith...believing with confidence in God's promises

Lola lives her faith in the way that she cares for the Ursulines personally and professionally.

The Ursulines, in turn have faith in God's providence and in Lola's guidance. We have faith in one another. And we have experienced over the years the faith that you have in us and we in you.

We are grateful for it all.

CONGRATULATIONS, URSULINE COLLEGE FOR 150 YEARS OF MINISTRY!

The Ursuline Sisters of Cleveland celebrate with pride and gratitude the 150th anniversary of the founding of Ursuline College in 1871. Since the arrival of the first Ursulines to Cleveland in 1850, Ursulines have been dedicated in many ways and through a variety of ministries to the education of God's people. In a particular way, the sisters founded Ursuline College to offer higher education, leadership skills and opportunities to women. Its mission has grown since 1871, but its commitment to women-focused education remains firm.

AD MULTOS ANNOS, Ursuline College! Blessings and best wishes to you for the next 150 years!

Volunteers lean into faith during journey through life

by Maggie Gibson, Volunteer Coordinator

Traveling through the ups and downs in life is always easier with a friend. Thankfully we can walk in faith with our friend Jesus who we know supports us during challenging times. The Scriptures offer light on the path.

Some of our volunteers share how they leaned into their faith recently.

Kathy and husband Joe Cistone

*Lo, children are a heritage from [God].
The fruit of the womb is a reward.*

– Psalm 127:3-5

“My faith got me through this past year and half,” says Kathy Cistone, who currently volunteers at the Merici Crossings reception desk. “I found more time to pray and meditate. Thank God we were able celebrate Sunday Mass. This time really put things in perspective - family and loved ones are so important.” Kathy is fortunate to be able to finally visit her kids and grandkids out of state this fall!

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, so you also should love one another.

– John 13:34

Toni Arnold volunteers at the Merici Crossings reception desk. Toni’s “baby ” brother Tom died suddenly last year at only 67 years old. Toni says, “I discovered during his wake what a generous, caring man he was to people of all faiths. This gave me solace during the COVID-19 restrictions and masked time.”

Toni Arnold with Tom on his 67th birthday in 2019.

Karen Murray and her granddaughter

*The Lord is my strength and my shield;
my heart has trusted in him, and he helps me: Therefore my heart greatly rejoices;
and with my song will I praise him.*

— Psalm 28:7

“My thoughts on living by faith are many and frequent,” says Karen Murray, who currently is a volunteer driver for sisters living at Regina Health Center. “Throughout every life, we are challenged by hardships and can experience painful situations. Maintaining a positive attitude is critical to weathering these storms. Having faith that God will always have us under his protection and will give us the strength we need is key to keeping a positive outlook. Faith has been my rock and has taught me that we are always stronger than we think.”

*Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not upon your own understanding:
in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will direct your paths.*

— Proverbs 3:5-6

Louise Barmann, who volunteers at the Annual Ursuline Derby Day, says that she needed to trust in both science and in God during the pandemic.

“I listened to expert advice regarding what to do to survive. I stayed abreast of the current thoughts and theories and suggestions for health as the science progressed in understanding COVID. It was like herding cats out there sometimes!

“However, as an underlying life path I never doubted that God would take care of me. God would give me the grace to not only survive but to also thrive. God stayed as the core of what was true and good. The science theories could change but God never would and never will.”

Louise Barmann

For we walk by faith, not by sight.

Volunteer Supporters

Thank you, volunteers, for your continued and evolving service throughout a time of change!

Throughout each year, we are touched by Christ through the service of others who support us. These instances of service have been very few during the time of the pandemic. While some of our volunteers have been able to resume their roles recently, others remain available and earnestly look toward the time when they may resume their duties. The Ursuline Sisters are blessed and humbled to have such dedicated friends and supporters.
